- 2) Any Vermont cents.
- 3) English half pennies dated between 1776 and 1788, whether imitation or otherwise.

Dear Mr. Bluestone:

I just had a talk with Becky Elkins and she told me what a nice gentleman you are and appreciated the good wishes which you sent her.

Some day you and I ought to meet. I have been spoiled by having had B. G. Johnson as a friend who got me almost everything I wanted and who educated me with respect to coins. As a result I never went to coin conventions and only knew the dealers who often traveled around the country. If you are ever in this area please come to see me, and I promise not to talk shop unless, of course, you insist.

I must have Lot 717 which you sent me, and regardless of how ridiculous I may sound in my desire to obtain these cheap coins I want you to get them for me at whatever price you believe is fair.

In order to save a lot of time and trouble I will keep the lot unless you wish to have it returned, but I don't think there is another person in the United States who would get enthusiastic over it. If you want it back just drop me a postal card and I will return it.

My bid sheet is enclosed, and I am sorry there is nothing much which I really need. I am enclosing the cost of your postage, and I sincerely appreciate your kindness.

Best wishes for the Holidays.

Sincerely yours,

EPNewman/me

Dear Mr. Newman:

Replying to yours of Feb. 2, with to advise that I accepted your buy bid on lot 555 and present high bid is now 300. If nothing happens this lot will be awarded to you @ $310. Now you have Books same as lot 537 & 539, at present I received two $10.00 bids on lot 539. If you wish to dispose of your copy at $8.50 you may forward same by P.P. Special delivery. Received only one bid of $6.50 on lot 537. The reason of no activity on this lot is the fact that Dr. Wm. Sheldon's Book on large Cents is now on the market and covers all data concerning large Cents from 1793 to 1814.

Sincerely yours

Barney Blueston

Dear Mr. Bluestone:

Although I have read the story of Hetty Green I think I would like to have it for my library. But there is one thing you must do before sending it to me, and that is to read it yourself, unless you have already done so. You will get many laughs from it and a group of unusual stories to tell.

I am enclosing my bid sheet, with an unlimited bid, so that you can be sure to obtain this for me.

Incidentally, you are selling two books, Lots 537 and 539, of which I have duplicates. If you want me to send them to you for the second bidder I will gladly do so, and I can take something else in exchange.

Sincerely yours,

EPNewman/me

Dear Mr. Bluestone:

I am sending you under separate cover
the H-G Book which is practically in new condition.

Please dispose of it as you indicated. Do not send me any money but just hold the balance to offset items which I will purchase in the future,
including the Green Book.

Thanks for your cooperation.
